SODIKART OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE

Official SODI drivers - Season 2016

Sodikart, the iconic brand and undisputed leader in the world of karting, presents its factory team that will be competing in this year's KZ world championships, the most prestigious class in the world.

Drivers Anthony Abbasse and Bas Lammers were again selected for the 2016 season and will be racing in the WSK events, the European Championship and the World Championship. They will be defending the colors of the SODI brand with just one objective in mind: victory!

The 2015 season was an excellent year for SODI chassis:

3 drivers in the top 5 of the KZ World Championships, winner of the X30 international final, winner of an event in the European KZ Championships, runner-up in the Senior X30 at the Challenge Europa and on the podium at the national level in many countries (France, New Zealand, England, Chile, France, Middle East). This confirms that the dedication and mobilization of everyone involved really paid off. The quality of SODI chassis is indisputable.

The duo Abbasse/Lammers will also be responsible for enhancing and refining the performance of SODI chassis through multiple test sessions scheduled throughout the season.

Sodikart is convinced that the pair's experience and professionalism, accompanied by the quality of the equipment and the expertise of SODI Racing Team, will earn us top international results during the 2016 season.
